

RECIPES

Precaution • Innovation • Science

Precaution for Responsible Innovation: New Options to Move Forward

RECIPES final conference (hybrid format) – May, 11th, 2022, 9:30 am – 3 pm, CEST, Brussels

Draft programme

9:30	Registration, coffee and refreshments, Online Check in
10:00	Introduction by external moderator
10:10	Welcome note by the European Commission Lorna Schrefler (DG Research and Innovation) Niamh Delaney (European Research Executive Agency)
10:20	Welcome note by the coordinator: Guidance for the future use of the precautionary principle Ellen Vos & Kristel de Smedt (University of Maastricht)
10:30	The RECIPES engagement approach: Reaching out to society and policy for developing the guidance RECIPES partners 15 min talk, 15 min Q&A (online and offline)
11:00	Refreshment break
11:15	Discussion input no. 1 from the RECIPES guidance: The precautionary principle works best in a double role: safeguard and compass RECIPES partners
11:25	1st Panel discussion: How to link innovation and precaution? Link it for ‘responsible innovation’? 4 panellists, 3 stakeholders who contributed to the RECIPES stakeholder engagement process, 1 RECIPES partner (plus external moderator) 35 min panel discussion, 15 min Q&A (online and offline)
12:15	Lunch break
13:15	Discussion input no. 2 from the RECIPES guidance: The precautionary principle is a knowledge and participation issue RECIPES partners
13:30	2nd Panel discussion: How can society and science interact in applying the precautionary principle? 5 panellists, 3 stakeholders who contributed to the RECIPES stakeholder engagement process, 2 RECIPES partners (plus external moderator) 40 min panel discussion, 10 min Q&A (online and offline)
14:20	Refreshment break
14:30	Outlook: Precaution and innovation: Where do we go from here? Iris Goldner Lang (University of Zagreb) 15 min talk, 10 min. Q&A (online and offline)
14:55	Farewell by coordinator
15:00	Closure